NEW YORK DINING

'21' Club

Known the world over, '21' is one of the most iconic and elegant dining destinations in New York City. Still the place to see and be seen, '21', by Orient-Express, has been welcoming guests for over 80 years. There are two restaurants within '21,' each offering something distinctively appealing. The heart of '21' is the famous Bar Room with its collection of corporate logos and sports memorabilia suspended from the ceiling and its sophisticated yet fun setting. Superb American cuisine is featured in an extensive à la carte menu plus prix-fixed menus offering great value at both lunch and dinner. Executive Chef John Greeley balances classic '21' dishes such as Dover Sole and New York's best crab cakes with his own cutting-edge creations such as Vermont farm-raised lamb with creamed nettles, roasted eggplant and fingerling potatoes; and roasted halibut with shrimp, bay scallops, razor clams, bok choy, chanterelle and corn kernels.

One flight above the Bar Room is the more intimate Upstairs at '21,' acclaimed by the New York Times as New York's most romantic restaurant. Enjoy wonderful cuisine and impeccable service in a formal setting adorned by four murals of scenic New York. '21' also features one of the world's most prized wine cellars, which has earned the Grand Award from Wine Spectator magazine. Among its 1,300 selections are more than 130 priced at $60 or less. For one of the city's most comfortable meeting spots for cocktails, try the lounge at '21' with its leather chairs and wood-burning fireplace. Men need jackets to dine but one can be provided if you are traveling. And please, no jeans or sneakers.

'21' Club also has 10 beautifully appointed private banquet rooms. No two are alike and these rooms are perfect for everything from a small corporate event to a large family celebration. Parties of 10 to 200 for lunch or dinner, and up to 400 for a reception can be accommodated to enjoy classic American cuisine, and experience service that is both caring and anticipating.
